I S, With great Respect,

Inscribed,

By their most obedient humble Servant,

D+

J. Browne.

P R E F A C E.

I Beg Leave to make my most grateful Acknowledgements to the Gentlemen of the Law, and the Public in general, for the very favourable Reception the former Editions of my GENERAL LAW-LIST has met with.—The various Improvements in this Edition, when compared with my first Attempt, will fully appear; and the Assistance I constantly receive from every Part of the Kingdom, enables me still to improve upon a Plan of such acknowledged Utility.

Although no Industry, Trouble, or Expence, have been spared for these eight Years past, to render this Work as full and correct as possible, by applying to most Attornies, &c. in Town and Country; yet from the continual Variations occasioned by Deaths, Admittances, Partnerships, Change of Residence, Purchases, &c. I humbly solicit my Friends in general, and the Gentlemen of the Law in particular, to transmit me such further Information as may supply the unavoidable Defects, arising from such Fluctuations, that they may be inserted in their regular Order against the next Edition.

THE Marshalsea is an ancient Court of record, to determine Suits between those that are of the King's House, and others within the Verge.

The Judges of the Court, are the Stewards, and Knight Marshal of the King's House, for the time being, who have Cognizance of all Manner of Pleas of Trespass committed within the Verge of the same House, so as either Party be of the same House; and other Actions Personal, wherein both Parties are the King's Servants: And this is the proper Jurisdiction of the Marshalsea Court.

But the Curia Regali, or Court of the Palace, was erected by King Charles I. and made a Court of Record, called, the Court of the King's Palace at Westminster, for the Trial of all Personal Actions, the Liberty whereof extendeth itself Twelve Miles round Whitehall: the City of London excepted, which Jurisdiction was confirmed by King Charles II.

The leading Process which may be had at any of the Offices in Clifford's Inn, is by Capias or Attachment, which is served upon the Defendant, by one of the Officers who taketh Bond, with two Sureties for the Defendant's Appearance, at the next Court, as he will be responsible for.

Defendant

Defendant must appear by Attorney at the return of the Writ, and put in Bail by the Wednesday following, which, if he neglects, the Plaintiff may have the Bond taken for Defendant's Appearance, assigned over to his Use.

Next Court after the Bail is taken, the Plaintiff declares, and sets forth the Cause of Action, and sets forth the Cause of Action, and proceed to Issues and Trial by a Jury. In Four or Five Court Days, so that their Proceedings are quick and speedy, unless an Habeas Corpus cum causa carry away the Plaintiff into the King's Bench, or Common Pleas, if the Debt be under Five Pounds.

In this Court are held Pleas of all Manner of personal Actions whatsoever, as Debt, Trespass, Battery, Trover, and all Actions on the Case, &c.
